BEFORE AND AFTER THE WAR. In an article under this heading, pub labed in yesterday's APPEAL, we showed how the BROWNLOW administraion has increased the taxation of the State more than two-thirds what it was in 1860, while the capacity of the people to pay their taxes has been reduced one balf in that time, making the amount of money now wrung from us fully four imes what we had to pay when the decency and intelligence of Tennessee controlled her affairs at Nashville. We propose this morning to show how the enormous sums thus exacted from our poor people have been expended. We ompare the two and a half years ending
